Fair Lending Policy

GI Home Loans is an Equal Housing Lender. We conduct business in accordance to the Federal Fair Housing Act & Equal Credit Opportunity Act. It is our corporate policy to ensure that in each of our residential real estate finance transactions, no person is discriminated on the basis of their race or color, national origin, religion, gender, marital and familial status, handicap or age.

GI Home Loans Privacy Statement

At G.I. Home Loans, we dedicate ourselves to helping our clients know their customers and respond with relevance. In that effort, we respect and protect the privacy of those who visit or use our Web site. We want you to know how your information is used.

To demonstrate our commitment to fair information practices, we have adopted leading industry privacy guidelines. And by becoming a member of the TRUSTe Privacy Program, G.I. Home Loans has agreed to disclose its information practices and have them reviewed and monitored for compliance by TRUSTe. This privacy statement describes privacy aspects specific to Web site and affiliated G.I. Home Loans Web sites (that are used to host G.I. Home Loans online product demos and the secure client administrative area).

Because of the financial nature of our business, our Web site is not designed to appeal to children under the age of 13. Therefore, we don't knowingly attempt to solicit or receive any information from children.

GI Home Loans does not share non-public borrower information with affiliates or non-affiliates except those entities that are on a "need to know" basis in the normal course of business (i.e. investors, credit bureaus, government agencies, MI Companies, etc).

If you have questions or concerns regarding this statement, you should first email:
